

Forty-first Cambridge Ophthalmological Symposium

Infection

8th and 9th September, 2011

Chairman: Professor John Dart

WEDNESDAY 7th SEPTEMBER

19.00 Wine Reception in the Fisher Foyer

20.00 Speakers' Dinner: Wordsworth Room St. John's College

THURSDAY 8th SEPTEMBER

08.55 Introduction

Martin Snead
University of Cambridge,
Cambridge

09.00 How pathogens interact with the eye

Gerald Pier
Harvard Medical School,
Boston

09.30 Diagnosis of infectious disease

Savitri Sharma
LV Prasad Eye Institute,
Hyderabad

10.00 Bacterial resistance and the eye:
antiseptics and antibiotics

David Hwang
University of California,
San Francisco

10.30 COFFEE

11.00 Pathogenesis of herpes virus infections

Georges Verjans
Erasmus University,
Rotterdam

11.30 Herpes simplex and anterior segment infections: what's changed?

Lies Renneijer
Rotterdam Eye Hospital,
Rotterdam

12.00 Herpes zoster ocular infections:
treatment and prophylaxis

Tod Margolis
University of California,
San Francisco

12.30 LUNCH

XLI CAMBRIDGE
OPHTHALMOLOGICAL SYMPOSIUM

2011

8th and 9th September

St. John's College, Cambridge

Academic Organisers:
Mr Martin Snead and Mr Keith Martin

14.00 Adenovirus keratoconjunctivitis
Jim Chodosh
Harvard Medical School,
Boston

14.30 Keratitis in developed countries: how has epidemiology and genetics helped us with pathogenesis and prophylaxis
Fiona Stapleton
University of NSW,
Sydney

15.00 What's causing this ulcer: management strategies for unresponsive corneal ulceration
Eduardo Alfonso
University of Miami,
Miami

15.30 TEA

16.00 Fungal, mycobacterial and nocardia infections and the eye
Prashant Garg
LV Prasad Eye Institute,
Hyderabad

16.30 Protozoal keratitis: acanthamoeba and microsporidia
Elmer Tu
University of Illinois,
Chicago

17.00 Close of Session

20.00 CONFERENCE DINNER ST. JOHN'S COLLEGE

FRIDAY 9th SEPTEMBER

09.00 How do microorganisms cause chronic inflammation and tumours?
Nick di Girolamo
University of NSW,
Sydney

09.30 CMV and the eye
Andrew Carmichael
University of Cambridge,
Cambridge

10.00 Diagnostic dilemmas in retinitis and endophthalmitis
Janet Davis
University of Miami,
Miami

10.30 COFFEE

11.00 Toxoplasmosis
Bahram Bodaghi
Hospital Pitié-Salpêtrière
Paris

11.30 MRSA: why have we got it and can we do anything about it?
Brian Duerden
Department of Health,
London

12.00 Systemic infections and ocular disease
Paul Meyer
Addenbrooke's Hospital
Cambridge

12.30 LUNCH

14.00 What should we be doing to reduce post surgical endophthalmitis
John Dart
Moorfields Eye Hospital
and UCL, London

14.30 Epidemiology and eradication of major eye infections worldwide
Adrian Hopkins
Task Force, Atlanta

15.00 How do we develop new antimicrobial therapies
Roger Beuerman
Singapore Eye Research
Institute, Singapore

15.30 TEA

16.00 Close of Meeting

15 minutes discussion time is allocated for each presentation

We are grateful to the following companies for their support:

Alcon
Allergan
Alacor
AMO
Bausch & Lomb

Haag Streit UK
Litechnica
Scope Ophthalmics
Spectrum Ophthalmics