

XXXIV CAMBRIDGE
OPHTHALMOLOGICAL SYMPOSIUM

2004

16th and 17th September

St. John's College, Cambridge

Academic Organiser: Mr M Snead

Thirtyfourth Cambridge Ophthalmological Symposium
MANAGEMENT OF BLINDING DISEASE

16th and 17th September, 2004

Chairman: Professor Allen Foster

WEDNESDAY 15th SEPTEMBER

19.00 Wine Reception in the Fisher Foyer

THURSDAY 16th SEPTEMBER

08.55 Introduction

Martin Snead
Cambridge

09.00 Global trends in blindness

Serge Resnikoff
Geneva

09.30 Metabolic changes in malnutrition

Peter Emery
London

10.00 Mechanisms of nutritional amblyopia

Gordon Plant
London

10.30 The effects of hypoxia and ischaemia on ocular tissue

Patricia Chavez-Barrios
Houston

11.00 COFFEE

11.45 Ocular response to infection and inflammation

Susan Lightman
London

12.15 Superinfection and loss of immunity

Barry Evans
London

12.45 Prediction and prevention of genetic
eye disease

Anthony Moore
London

13.15 LUNCH

14.30 How should blindness in children be managed?

Richard Bowman
Tanzania

15.00 Vitamin A deficiency and congenital ocular anomalies

Simon Ward
Sheffield

15.30 The ideal management of ROP

Graham Quinn
Pennsylvania

16.00 TEA

16.45 Public private partnerships in blindness prevention: maximising the opportunities

David Molyneux
Liverpool

17.15 Ivermectin and onchocerciasis - is it all solved?

Adrian Hopkins
Kinshasa

17.45 Can trachoma blindness be eliminated by 2020?

Jacob Kumarasan
New York

18.15 Close of Session

20.00 CONFERENCE DINNER IN ST JOHN'S COLLEGE

FRIDAY 17th SEPTEMBER

09.00 External factors in the development of cataract

Luba Robman
Melbourne

09.30 High volume cataract surgery

Howard Gimbel
Calgary

 10.00 Delivery of high volume cataract surgery with minimal facilities

David Yorston
London

10.30 UK diagnostic and treatment centres: the first six months

John Ferris
Cheltenham

11.00 COFFEE

11.45 Prevention of blindness in leprosy

Margreet Hogeweg
Delft

12.15 The value of corneal transplantation in reducing blindness

Prashant Garg
Hyderabad

12.45 Progressive changes in diabetics and their management

Bill Aylward
London

13.15 LUNCH

14.30 Can we prevent angle closure glaucoma?

Gordon Johnson
Oxford

14.45 What is practical in glaucoma management

Alan Rotchford
Nottingham

15.15 Prospects for prediction and prevention in AMD

Alan Bird
London

15.45 Vision 2020 - reality or idealism?

Allen Foster
London

16.15 TEA and Close of Meeting

15 minutes discussion time is allocated for each presentation

We are grateful to the following companies for their support:

Alcon
Allergan
Kestrel
Litechnica
MSD
Pfizer Ophthalmics